INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 30.-The movement that brought into being the conference of the national Democratic which will be called Tomilisson hall at Groer noon on Wednesday next, started the adoption of the pistform of the Chicago convention. No definite steps were taken, however, until July dary line, and after an exciting exwhen W. D. Bynum, John P. Prenzel, John B. Wilson, John T. Dye and Evans Woolen sent out from this city telegrams asking for a conference of "cound money" Democrats at Chimgo.

ITS DEVELOPMENT.

From that day the movement has developed so rapidly that now the na-nal Democracy is organized in forty-one states, all of which, it is said, will the states, at or which, it is said, with the represented by full delegations in the convention this week. Mr. Bynum, as chairman of the executive committee, has been busy night and day in pushing the organization, and he has had Support and assistance of many of the ablest Democratic poli-

Eccans in the country.
Screetary Wilson, of the national 'Ascutive committee, completed making up the temporary roll of the convention so far as he could go until the Tuesday meeting of the national com-mittee. The following states have cer-tified the names of full delegations elected: California, Connecticut, Hlinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Ken-tucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusette, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Chio, Oregon, Pennsyl-vania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, North Carolina, South Carolina, North Carolina, South Carolina, North Carolina, South Dakota, Ten-nessee, Texas, Vermont, West Virginia, twenty-nine in all, The following states have notified the executive comniller that they have elected delega-ions but have not yet sent in their lists: Colorado, Delaware, Florida, New Hampshire, Virginia

These states will, it is expected, elect tomorrow: New York, Arkansas, Miselssippi and Montana—making a total of forty-one states and leaving Idaho, Wyoming Nevada and Utah as the states which will not take part in the

WILL BE NOTABLE.

The convention will be notable in one or two other particulars aside from the suddenness with which it has been brought together. It will have no conbrought together. It will have no contending factions nor opposing ambitions, and it will contain more notable men than any of those held this year. The speeches to be delivered at the Wednesday night mass meeting by Fellows, Breckinridge, Eckels and Guthwaite are looked forward to as notable contributions to the "sound money" literature of the campaign. W. A. Curtis of New Jersey one of the leaders of the "sound money" movement in the Democratic party of his nearly of the "sound money" move-ment in the Democratic party of his tate, arrived in this city this afternoon. "I cannot speak for the delegation," he answered. "as we have had no conference, and every man comes free to cast his vote as he chooses. I can say, wever, that we will probably be united and our principal aim, perhaps, will be to add strength to the strong-est man. Personally, I believe that General Palmer would make the ideal

General Bragg is a man of whom I am very fond, and a man who would do honor to the ticket. Watterson is very popular, and would make a very acceptable candidate to many, and there is only one reason that I could offer for not supporting him for the nomination. Coming from the same state as General Buckner, his nomina-tion for the presidency would defeat Buckner's nomination for the vicepresidency, and I hope to see General Buckner get that nomination."

WILL SUPPORT GROVER. The Florida delegation will come to the convention to support Grover Cleveland for the presidential nomina-tion. Today a telegram was received by Mr. Taggart at the Grand hotel from Arthur Meigs, chairman of the delegation, asking that a banner be prepared for the delegation. The ban-ner is to be of white slik with a gold border, containing in the center the portrait of Cleveland and inscribed with the words, "Our Candidate." Mr. Megs requested that the banner be sent to the union station to meet the delegation at 11:50 o'clock on Tuesday morning.

Chairman Bynum returned this morning from Bradford Junetion, O., where he spoke last night to a meet-ing composed largely of railroad men. He says there were 4,000 people in the crowd, three special trains bringing large numbers from the surrounding ntry. The meeting was to him, at t, a very satisfactory demonstra-t of the interest of the people in the se of "sound money."

"Certainly," he promptly responded.

three of them."

Nothing is known here of the intentions of President Cleveland regarding the convention and its work. No one so far on the ground has received any communication from him, at least none that has even been whispered of in private conferences.

Some people think it probable that Comptroller Eckels, who will be here tomorrow, has a message from the president or is authorized to speak for him in some way that will be satisfactory to the delegates.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 30.-Mexican officers have made an important capture of horse thieves in the Cocopah mountains, a few miles below the bounperfence and a narrow escape from death at the hands of the outlaws, the prisoners have been lodged in the Ensenada jail. For months past horses and cattle have been missed by ranchers and stockmen near Campo, just north of the boundary line, but no trace of the stock has ever been found. The of the stock has ever been found. The country is mountainous and sparsely settled and trails leading into Lower California were evidently used in run-ning off the stock. Ten days ago two stock men at Campo lost ten head of stock men at Campo lost ten head of stock and started out to search for them. They found a trail and followed it for twenty miles into a little park in the mountains. Here they discovered thirty head of horses hobbled, and started to recover their own stock when they were fired on from ambush and forced to gallop away. They started back after assistance and after riding a mile they head the cries of a man. They followed the sound and found an old Frenchman named Rabavo fied to a tree among the pines. He

The temporary silence of the German newspapers in regard to the ministerial crisis, does not imply that the emperor has arranged with Prince Hobenlohe that the latter shall retain the chancel-lorship. Nor does the announcement of the Reichsanzeizer, the official ga-zette, that a bill for the reform of military judicial procedure is to be con-sidered by the bundesrath to avert the resignation of the chancellor or remove th probability of a conflict be-tween the kaiser and the reichstag. The fact is that a great deal depends upon the nature of the measures placed before the bundesrath. If the emperor as-sents to the reforms demanded by the reichstag, making the military tribunals's independent proceedings and the supreme military court's final proceedings public, no constitutional struggle will arise over this question; but the emperor certainly will not assent to such a measure, and everyone knowing the every situation will expect that the exact situation still expects that the matter will give rise to a fight in the reichstag of the gravest character in defense of the constitutional author-ity against the court cabals. If Prince Hoheniohe retires, after seeing the visit of the way to Besslau conclude his of the czar to Breslau concluded, his retirement will be the signal for a general rising against the emperor's secret advisors, his military cabinet, his naval cabinet, and his civil cabinet, which are now practically ruling the affairs of the empire. The influence of Odd Fellowship has interjected into the materialism of daily life many loving kindnesses, many deeds of sweet charity; many deeds of sweet charity; it stands stronger in numbers and influence than ever before. The achievements yet to come will make its glory rival the irridescent shafts the sun sends up at dawn to herald the breaking of another day. It is destined to conquer the world. Wielding the sceptre of love, the course of its history has been marked by the up springing of bright flowers, touched with the light of happiness, while songs of joy proclaim a humanity dis-enthroned from the least element of the passions.

ON THE BEACH.

I sit alone; in foam and spray.

Wave after wave Breaks on the rocks, which, stern and

Shoul'er the broken tide away, Or murmurs hourse and strong through massy cloft and cave.

What heed I of the dusty land
And noisy town?
I see the mighty deep expand
From its white line of glimmering sand
To where the bine of heaven on bine
waves shuts down?

In listless quietode of mind
I yield to all
The change of cloud and wave and wind;
And passive on the flood inclined.
I wander with the waves, and with them rise and fall. But look, thou dreamer; wave and shore

In shadow lie; That night wind warns me back once more

To where, my native hilitops o'er,
Bends like an arch of fire the glowing sunset sky.

So, then, beach, bluff and wave, farewell!
No token stone nor glittering shell
I bear with me,
But long and oft shall memory tell
Of this brief thoughtful hour of musing
by the sea.
